CATALYNT ACQUIRES AMERICAN CHEMIE

December 13, 2023
AUSTIN, TX

Catalynt Solutions, Inc. (formerly TRInternational, Inc.) is proud to announce the acquisition of specialty chemical distributor, American Chemie, Inc. in Austin, TX.

The acquisition enhances Catalynt's already vast product line by offering specialty chemistries catering to a diverse range of industries including personal care, cosmetics, cleaning, food, feed, nutraceuticals, and lubricants.

For over 30 years American Chemie, Inc. has forged ahead as the authorized North American distributor for many globally reputed companies, providing a wide variety of specialty chemicals to customers in the United States, Canada and Mexico. Since the company's inception in 1991, their vision has been to bridge the gap of global markets, focusing on the sourcing and development of specialty chemicals originating in India, Southeast Asia and Europe. Together, Catalynt and American Chemie, Inc. offer consolidated product and services offering with a single source advantage for all chemical, ingredient and manufacturing related needs.

Catalynt's CEO & Owner, Megan Gluth-Bohan, says, "I am delighted to bring the business and talent of American Chemie into our Catalynt Team. This acquisition reflects our commitment to continue to deepen our offerings and services to our customers. These are exciting times at Catalynt – and the best is yet to come!"
